100173202 BALLYGRIFFIN CT	Public Road	11-Dec-95	MOSMAN PARK, TOWN OF	The founder of the Order of the Presentation Sisters was Nano Nagle, who was born in Ballygriffin, County Cork, Ireland. The Iona College and associated primary school have long been associated with Mosman Park, and as these schools were established by the Order of Presentation Sisters the name Ballygriffin has been selected in recognition of the contribution.
100173203 CONLAN CL	Public Road	11-Dec-95	MOSMAN PARK, TOWN OF	The name was selected by the Council in recognition of a resident of Mosman Park for 45 years. Mr Joseph Conlan was a very strong supporter of the Council and was a founding member of the Mosman Park Ratepayers Association. Mr Conlan died approximately 3 years ago. He was also born in Ireland which tends to continue that flavour throughout the subdivision.
100173213 MEATH MEWS	Public Road	11-Dec-95	MOSMAN PARK, TOWN OF	CY O'Connor birth place was County Meath, also in Ireland. O'Connor's association with Fremantle and the harbour is well documented. This association also extended to Buckland Hill adjacent to the development where the limestone for the North and South Moles and the harbour were quarried.
100175390 DERRY L	Public Road	3-Aug-01	MOSMAN PARK, TOWN OF	Sir Charles O'Connor was Western Australia's Engineer in Chief of Public Works and Manager of Railways. He commissioned limestone to be quarried from the Rocky Bay area to be used in the construction of the North and South Moles and Fremantle Harbour. The name reflects his birthplace of Navan, the nearby capital of Dublin as well as railway companies for which he worked and studied. It was the skills gained in these earlier years that allowed him to make such a contribution to the Port of Fremantle. This name is considered appropriate given the involvement C.Y. O'Connor had in establishing the Port of Fremantle with rock quarried from the Rocky Bay Quarry.
100175391 DUBLIN L	Public Road	3-Aug-01	MOSMAN PARK, TOWN OF	Charles Yelverton O'Connor was Western Australia's Engineer in Chief of Public Works and Manager of Railways.
